This training will provide training in the basic components of sensory evaluation including psychological consideration in sensory analysis, physiology of sensory perception, reviewing the components of flavor, and exploring flavor and texture attributes during hands-on sensory sessions.

Topics include:
- Understanding of Sensory
- Developing a Sensory Plan
- Understanding the Components of Flavor

This course is ideally suited for:
- QA/QC
- Production