

Cornell University Cooperative Extension

gardening.cornell.edu

Youth Feedback Form

We are interested in learning more about your experiences as a children's garden consultant. Your responses will help us to improve the Children's Garden Consultants experience for future participants. Please answer the following questions. If there is a question you do not want to answer, then skip it and go on to the next. Your answers will be kept confidential and not shared with project leaders, teachers, or parents.

1. What did you like best about working as a Children's Garden Consultant?
2. What did you like least?
3. How useful do you feel the following activities were? Please use the following scale:
1= not at all useful
2= somewhat useful
3=unsure
4=quite useful
5=extremely useful

- Listening to speakers about children's gardens and garden design
- Field trip to _____
- Field trip to _____
- Field trip to _____
- Web search activity
- Small group discussions with other youth consultants
- Small group discussions/meetings with children
- Briefing sessions
- Final presentation
- Keeping a notebook

4. Overall, how would you rate your experience working as a Children's Garden Consultant?
Poor Fair Good Excellent

5. Please indicate how you feel about the following statements. Use the scale below:
1=strongly disagree
2=disagree
3=unsure
4=agree
5=strongly agree

- I feel my ideas were taken seriously.
- I learned a lot about children's gardens.
- I learned a lot about being a consultant.
- My ideas are likely to be put into practice.
- I had something to contribute.
- Adults meddled too much and tried to influence my thinking.
- My interest in gardens has increased.
- I would like to do additional consulting work.
- I feel that the adults really wanted to learn from me and the other youth consultants.
- Adults need to listen to children and youth more often.
- The task of learning a lot of information in a short period of time, and then making a presentation, is a challenging one.
- The task of learning a lot of information in a short period of time, and then making a presentation, is an enjoyable one.
- I enjoyed partnering with other teens to consult.
- I found it hard to agree with the other teens.
- It was easy to put together the presentation with other people.

6. Would you recommend that youth garden consultants should be used in other communities?
 Yes No Unsure

Thank you for completing this survey!