NFS has provided a valuable chance to learn about the EFNEP program, including the background, various aspects of nutrition education, and how to move forward as an educator/supervisor in the future. It has allowed a chance to ask questions, collaborate with other educators/supervisors and learn together.”

- 2023 course participant