Activities:

- Cross Country: 2019 - 2023 (5 - 7 hrs/week)
As a captain of the Troy Cross Country Varsity team, I run everyday from a training plan formulated by my coach. The main focus of the training is to run the fastest times in the different races our team has signed up for and win the Freeway league against other schools in the area
 - 1600m PR: 5:08.56
 - 3200m PR: 11:17.94
 - 3 Mile PR: 16:46.4
 - Half Marathon PR: 1:34:42
 - Marathon PR: 3:38:55
- Boy Scout: 2017 - 2023 (1-2 hrs/week)
As a member of the Boy Scouts, I continually learn about different aspects of life, ranging from the outdoors to common mannerism in the real world. I use the knowledge learned to rank up and possibly become an eagle scout, but also implement it into my daily life to become a better person.
- USACO: 2019 - 2023 (2-3 hrs/week)
An open source algorithmic coding competition that I partake in which requires the use of out of the box thinking to create an algorithm that solves a problem within a specified time and memory constraint.
- Taekwondo: 2010 - 2023 (2 hrs/week)
As a trainee of the ancient form of asian martial arts, I learned the basic skills of self defense. In addition I learn many practical skills such as self control and discipline which are core principles of the art.
- Hollywood Christmas Parade Captain: 2019 - 2023 (1-2 hrs/week)
An annually held parade that is held through the streets of LA. Through PAVA, a volunteering organization, students play Korean traditional instruments as a way to show people the Korean culture, but also as a remembrance to the LA riots.

- Hanjin Intermodal Internship: 6/1/2023 - 8/1/2023 (40 hrs/week)
As intern at Hanjin Intermodal, I was expected to help with the finances of the company such as doing faxes, calculations for projects, and other finance work required by the company.

Community Service:

- Pacific American Volunteers Association (PAVA): 2018 - 2023 (2 - 3 hrs/week)
As the National Vice President of the community service organization PAVA, I actively planned activities to promote Korean culture as well as help the community through different undertakings.
- Korean American Special Education Center Basketball Partner (KASEC): 2022 - Now (1 hr/week)
Community service in which young adults and children with autism are given a chance to do things they otherwise normally can not
