“LNG Storage Solutions, a Key Consideration and Element in LNG Terminal Operation”

Featuring

Hal Bouknight

Senior Vice President, Business Development, IHI E&C International Corporation

This presentation will provide a high level introduction and overview of the different types of containment systems for small and large scale LNG land-based and marine-based storage applications as offered by IHI E&C. We will look briefly at key associated equipment, safety, regulatory, capital cost and schedule considerations that drive the implementation of a successful LNG terminal solution.
