Explore the critical strategic issues facing global
E&C industries & help impact the future.

Friday, June 8, 2018

“U.S. and Canada Chemical Industry Outlook”

Featuring

Trey Hamblet

Global Vice President of Research

Chemical Processing Industry of Industrial Info Resources

The cost advantages of low gas prices available to producers in the U.S. continue to keep overall investments in the chemical industry at an all-time high, sparking dozens of multibillion-dollar investments and attracting numerous foreign companies to invest in the United States for the first time. Industrial Info's research team continues to identify new and even bigger projects than have been started in recent years. This outlook will include details on the more than $160 billion Industrial Info is currently tracking in active projects in the US and Canadian chemical industry.
