Our current maximum occupancy is:

This occupancy is based on Oregon Health Authority guidance requiring establishments to determine maximum occupancy and limit the number of individuals on the premises. Maximum occupancy is based on the requirement that at least six (6) feet of physical distance be maintained between parties.
Oregon OSHA’s COVID-19 Temporary Standard for all workplaces

Physical distancing
Workers must be separated from one another and other individuals by at least 6 feet.

Facial covering
In most indoor environments, as well as outdoor situations where 6 feet of physical distance from others cannot be maintained, a proper face covering that covers the nose and mouth is required.

Workplace risk assessment
Talk to your employer about COVID-19 risks in the workplace and how to address them.

Notify your employer when you feel sick
Cough, shortness of breath, fever, etc.

Wash your hands often

Workers: If you are quarantined due to COVID-19, contact your employer about available leave options.

You have the right to notify your employer or Oregon OSHA about workplace hazards. Oregon OSHA will keep your name confidential if you ask.

You have the right to report a work-related injury or illness, without being retaliated or discriminated against.

You can file a complaint with the Oregon Bureau of Labor and Industries within 90 days, or with federal OSHA within 30 days, of discrimination by your employer for making safety and health complaints or for exercising your rights under the Oregon Safe Employment Act.
EFFECTIVE MARCH 23, 2020 UO campus facilities are only open for students, faculty, and staff who are performing critical services, and for those with official, critical business on campus (e.g., vendors).

FOR UO COMMUNITY MEMBERS: If you have a UO-issued ID and this building has a card reader use your card for access. If that does not work, call 541-346-2919 and press 2 to request assistance from UOPD. You will be asked to show your UO ID.

FOR VENDORS: Contact your UO point person directly. If you do not have a phone number, call 541-346-2919 and press 2 to request assistance from UOPD.
