

Thomas Vollmer

A memorial service will be held June 1 for Thomas Wesley Vollmer of Portland, formerly of Eugene,

Thomas
Vollmer

who died May 19 at age 25. His family chose not to list the cause of death.

Vollmer was born June 1, 1976, in Baker City to Wesley Vollmer and Andrea Nicholson Wiggins. He lived in Baker City until 1980, when he moved to McMinnville. He lived in Corvallis from 1985 to 1989, when he moved to Eugene. He moved to Portland in 2001.

He attended Sheldon High School and received his high school diploma from Lane Community College. Vollmer attended Portland Community College. He worked at Renner's Grill and Nordstrom's in Portland. Vollmer was recognized with numerous outstanding customer service awards.

He was an excellent gourmet cook, and he enjoyed music, art and design. Vollmer especially enjoyed meeting and knowing people of all ages and backgrounds.

Survivors include his mother of Springfield; his father of Corvallis; and a brother, Alexander of Seattle.

Saturday's service will be at 10 a.m. at Central Lutheran Church in Eugene. Musgrove Family Mortuary in Eugene is in charge of arrangements.

Memorial contributions may be made to Looking Glass Youth Services in Eugene or the Thomas W. Vollmer Memorial Fund at the University of Oregon College of Education in care of the UO Foundation.
