Class Description and Format
This intensive 4-week class introduces students to the field of landscape architecture, the Oregon landscape and ecology, the University of Oregon, and their cohort, through a combination of seminar, workshop, and field trip formats. The course will include instructional lectures, class discussion, project work, pin-ups, critiques, digital and analog media instruction, and field trips exploring the varied landscapes of Oregon.
Outside of class time, students are expected to complete various tasks/projects assigned in the syllabus and in class. Field trips may occasionally extend beyond the scheduled course time due to distance of travel.
