Have you ever wanted to learn how to use digital tools to accelerate innovation at biotech startups? Join Drake Garner and Aaron Steger, for a discussion on emerging startups trends. Then learn to use Benchling to build an investor pitch. 1 in 4 biotech IPOs in 2020-21 came from companies running R&D on Benchling.

Engage is a hands-on initiative by the GSAS Harvard Biotechnology Club designed to equip students with concrete biotech skills taught by leading experts in the respective realms. The workshops consist of two sessions with a combination of lecture-based learning and hands-on assignments.
