The evolution of my service

Dongze Liu (Chris)

At the begging, I was really shy because this is my first time being a tutor. I was not confident with my English.

Hi, Chris. I'm a teacher here Welcome to our school! How's everything going today?

·····, do you have any

and

this is why

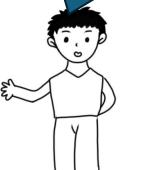

In the class, the teacher explained most of the questions. I also know how to illustrate them but I was still a little bit shy because I was not sure whether I could explain well in English.

One day, a students took initiative to talk to me and he knew my name although I never met him before. This really touched me, which made me become more confident about myself.

Nice to meet you Charles!

Hi, Chris! My name is Charles. Nice to meet you!

questions about this?

After that, I tried to talk more and more. I became more confident and I could even explain questions for students without teacher's help.