April 9th
Registration and Conversation:
4:30-5:00 PM, Harris Hall 108 (location TBD)

Opening Keynote, Sarah Quinn:
5:00-6:30 PM, Harris Hall 108 (location TBD)

Reception:
6:00-7:00pm Harris Hall 108 (location TBD)

April 10th
Coffee, Conversation, Registration:
8-9:00am, Harris Hall 108 (location TBD)

Welcome address:
9:00-9:15am (location TBD)

Morning panels I:
9:30am-11:00am

Morning panels II:
11:15am-12:45pm

Lunch:
1:00pm-2:00pm (location TBD)

Afternoon panels I:
2:15pm-3:45pm

Closing Keynote - featuring Patricia Posey, Destin Jenkins, Bruce Carruthers, and Sarah Quinn
4:00pm-5:30pm (location TBD)

Reception:
5:30-7:00pm (location TBD)

The Neoliberal State Reconsidered: Risk, Surveillance, and the Future of Global Capitalism

Keynote Speaker
Sarah Quinn
University of Washington

April 9-10 2020
Northwestern University
Evanston, IL

For more information visit bit.ly/2liKrzU

For questions or other information, please contact Charlotte Rosen at charlotterosen2021@u.northwestern.edu
Morning panels I

Social media, big tech, and the state – Kelly Moore (Locy 109)
Berch Berberoglu – Neoliberal Authoritarianism and Threats to Academic Freedom Under Global Capitalism
Yan Xu -- Circumvention, Institutional Change and the Rise of Tech Entrepreneurship in China
Swati Srivastava – Not Just a Social Network: Facebook’s Global Scandals and Political Responsibility
Cameron Black -- Fantasizing Surveillance: Fantasy Sport and Surveillance Capitalism from 1970-2010

Empire, markets, and capitalist development -- Jack Jin Gary Lee (UNV 418)
Devin Wiggs -- Rediscovering Imperialism within the Sociology of Development
Laura Cheung -- Invisible Imperial Expansion: British Merchants and Land Investment in the Chinese Interior, 1870-1914
Mylene Freeman -- Colonial impact on public goods provision among indigenous communities in Canada
Salih Noor - Late Colonialism and Development: post-colonial economic and social development in Italian Africa

Resistance and reform in a neoliberal age – Atef Said (Harris Hall, 108)
Karla Mundim – Legacies of Resistance: A Long Range Approach to Indigenous Mobilization in Peru and Ecuador
Joseph Greenbaum – Roadblocks and Resistance: Politics of Surveillance and Sight in South Sudan
Luiz Vilaca -- Bureaucratic Activism and Institutional Change: The Case of Anti-Corruption Reform in Brazil
Joshua Basseches – Private Power in the US States: Business Interests and the Design of State Level Climate Policy

Urban growth, urban revolt – Andy Clarno (Locy 111)
Aviral Pathak – Planning the City of the Future in Modern India
Robert Mowry -- The Wielding of Pro-Growth Frames and Strategies in Anti-Freeway Campaigns in San Francisco and Oakland
Veronica Pecile -- The neoliberal restructuring of Southern Italy between touristification and resistance
Xiaoqian Wan – Racialization in the Emergence of Migration regime: Varied social status of African Traders in the cities of China

Surveillance, criminalization, and social control – Susan Pearson (UNV 418)
Enrique Alvear -- Protecting Immigrants and Punishing Gangs: Crafting the crimmigration police in Chicago’s sanctuary city regime
Austin Jenkins -- Legally-Coerced Addiction Treatment Before and After Neoliberalism
Jing-Mao Ho – Keeping a Watchful Eye on Society: State Building and the Worldwide Establishment of National Statistical Systems, 1826-2010
Rachel Roberson -- Intersectional Surveillance in Sport
Morning panels II

The American state’s many hands – Anthony Chen (Locy 214)

Kumar Ramanathan – Pursuing Social Policy Expansion through Civil Rights in the US

Martin Eiermann -- Legal Temporality and Ideological Concretion: The Emergence of a Right to Privacy, 1870-1930

Joshua Aleksanyan – War and Punish: The Contaminate Origins of Mass Supervision

Emilio Lehoucq -- The Localized Field Theory of Science: Explaining the Development of Machine Learning

States in and of crisis, political transitions, and the “historical event” – William Reno (Locy 111)

Ioana Sendroiu -- All the old illusions': Crisis and failures of imagination at the beginning of the Cold War

Ebru Karayigit Tercioglu -- For the People, Despite the People: Elite Mobilization in Turkey (1908-1945)

Philip Hoffman -- Syria and the "Structural" Effect of the International Community

Gilad Wenig -- Islam and Military Autonomy in Egypt

Methodological innovations and theoretical challenges in comparative historical social science – James Mahoney (UNV 418)

Nate Ela – Comparative-Historical Ethnography

Emre Amasyali -- Using Machine Learning to Digitize Protestant Missionary Yearbooks from the Ottoman Empire

Rahardhika Utama – Agrarian Relations and a Theory of Path Dependence in Economic Development

Daniel Encinas Zevallos -- The Fundamental Problems Experiments: Qualitative Tools for Designing Experimental Research in Political Science

Neoliberalism in development and global systems of social provision – Ann Orloff (Harris Hall, 108)

Lantian Li – Between Market and Bureaucratic Rules: How Contradictory Healthcare Reform Spoiled the Pharmaceutical Industry in China, 1984-2018

Ungki Jung -- The Old Future? The Formation of Health Care Governance and Its Breakdown in South Korea

Kory Johnson -- Bringing State Elites Back In: Democracy, Social Citizenship and the Welfare State in Modern Latin America

Kelly Russell – Crime Pays the Victim: Criminal Fines, the State, and Victim Compensation Law, 1964-1984
Afternoon panels

Symbolic states and the production of knowledge – James Sparrow (Kresge 2339)

Brandon Massey -- “Your Father Who Sees in Secret”: Jesus and Surveillance Capitalism

Ioana Sendroiu -- 'Probably tomorrow I'll become a war criminal': Autocratic legalism as symbolic and transnational regime change

Johnathan Shaffer -- Modeling Mundane Maladies: Noncommunicable Diseases and the Social Determinants of Knowledge

Ross English -- The Value of Attention: Value Theory, the Attention Economy, and the Pervasive Nature of Capitalistic Humanity

What's “neo” about neoliberalism? States and markets in historical perspective – Ajay Mehrotra (Parkes 214)

Felipe Cole -- Making Sovereignty from Debt in the Americas, 1822-49

Mushahid Hussain -- Foreshadowing ‘Neoliberal Society’? Development Politics and State-making in East Pakistan, 1953-1961

Niko Letsos Un-American Neoliberalism: Decentering the U.S. in a Global Story

Wen Xie -- Generation as Structure: Market Transformation in the Socialist Industrial Heartland in China

Financialization, risk, and stratification in neoliberal states – Bruce Carruthers (Harris Hall, 108)

Inga Rademacher -- Bringing the state back into political economy: How the institutional power of the central bank and the Ministry of Finance shaped German macroeconomic discipline

Chang Liu -- Institutional Change in China’s Price Reform, 1979-1992

Yesenia Vargas -- Entrepreneurial Onto-logics: How Informal Mechanisms Determine Entrepreneurial Subjectivity in Neoliberal Chile

Yu Ching Cheng - Trade and Tradability: On the Market Action of Liquidity

Nina Teresa Kiderlin -- The Making of an Armed Group: Global Financial Networks and Knowledge in Domestic and International Courts

Empire, markets, and capitalist development -- Jack Jin Gary Lee (Parkes 215)

Devin Wiggs -- Rediscovering Imperialism within the Sociology of Development

Laura Cheung -- Invisible Imperial Expansion: British Merchants and Land Investment in the Chinese Interior, 1870-1914

Mylene Freeman -- Colonial impact on public goods provision among indigenous communities in Canada

Salih Noor - Late Colonialism and Development: post-colonial economic and social development in Italian Africa