Office of Animal Welfare

Start low.
Starting high could damage vein and moving closer to tail tip below that point could cause injection to leak out.

Don't thread much past the bevel.

Area for injection

Caudal 1/3 veins are flatter.

Don't use since it is tied in with bony structure.

Land the airplane

Start low.
Starting high could damage vein and moving closer to tail tip below that point could cause injection to leak out.