

Marshallese Interpreting for Community Inclusion in partnership with Marshallese Educational Initiative present:

Marshallese History and Culture: An MEI Training for Service Providers

Staff from the Marshallese Educational Initiative will provide an overview of US-Marshallese history, Marshallese culture, education, health, and notions of ability/disability.

Tues., March 14, 9 AM-12 PM, Virtual Session, Register here:

https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZwrD0yrrjkrH9b26PVS5rHI_zsRi4YrmBDZ

Who Should Attend?

Those who work with individuals with disabilities in any setting (educational, medical, therapeutic, etc.) in Arkansas and are interested in learning about the Marshallese Community Participation is limited!

Registration deadline: March 13th.

An in-person training will be offered in Little Rock on May 5th.

Questions?

Please contact Tanya Miller-Witsell at tmillerw@uark.edu or 501-301-1113

Funding for Marshallese Interpreting for Community Inclusion (MICI), a project of Partners for Inclusive Communities-University of Arkansas at Fayetteville, is provided by Arkansas Governor's Council on Developmental Disabilities grant 23-UAP-010-2122-SG