The ASG Standing Rules Presentation Bill of 2021

Whereas, Currently, the ASG Judicial Branch and the ASG Office of Financial Affairs are not obligated to present their standing rules outside of their own branch, with the exception of active amendments of the OFA Standing Rules; and

Whereas, The Chief Justice and Treasurer are currently encouraged to attend ASG Senate meetings to give reports from their branches to senators; and

Whereas, The presentation and approval of OFA and Judicial Standing Rules to the Senate body provides an excellent opportunity for new ASG Senators to learn about other branches, their functions, and their governing documents; and

Whereas, The ASG Constitution states in Article III Section 5.B that one of the duties of the ASG Senate is to establish and modify governing documents that dictate ASG operation; then

Be it therefore resolved: Effective June 1st. 2021, Title I, Section 4.G of the ASG Code be added to say: “The Standing Rules shall additionally be presented and approved by a simple majority vote of the ASG Senate at the beginning of each academic year. This presentation should explain the function and purpose of the standing rules within OFA.” and

Be it further resolved: Effective June 1st, 2021, Title III, Section 8.G.c of the ASG Code be added to say: “The Standing Rules shall additionally be presented and approved by a simple majority vote of the ASG Senate at the beginning of each academic year. This presentation should explain the function and purpose of the standing rules within the ASG Judicial Branch.”
