Ayesha Bulchandani Graduate Curatorial Internship

One Placement Available

Summer 2018

Background

The Frick Collection is an art museum with a collection of more than 1,100 works of art—dating from the thirteenth to the nineteenth century—displayed in the intimate surroundings of the former home of Henry Clay Frick. The residence, with its furnishings and works of art, has been open to the public since 1935. The Frick Art Reference Library is an internationally recognized research library that serves as one of the world's most complete resources for the study of Western art.

Internship

Curatorial interns assist specialists in European painting, sculpture, and decorative arts from the Renaissance to the early twentieth century, collaborating with curatorial staff on research projects pertaining to areas of art history represented in The Frick Collection.

Eligibility

The Ayesha Bulchandani Graduate Curatorial Internship is open to qualified graduate students pursuing a degree in art history. Preference will be given to students with a background in Western art and a demonstrated interest in museum work. Candidates with an interest in Italian Renaissance art are particularly encouraged to apply. Reading proficiency in Italian is beneficial. Applicants should be extremely detail oriented. Foreign nationals must have eligibility to participate in unpaid internship placements in the U.S as well as to receive a stipend. Applicants are responsible for their own housing and travel arrangements.

Time Commitment

The internship generally spans eight to ten weeks, with activities carried out four to five days a week between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Stipend

Under the Ayesha Bulchandani Internship Program, the Curatorial intern will receive a stipend of $4,000.

Benefits of an Internship with The Frick Collection

This internship provides a superb opportunity for participating in all aspects of curatorial work in a small, dynamic department and for interacting with staff across the institution.

Additionally, The Frick Collection offers a beautiful and pleasant work setting and an excellent opportunity to appreciate some of the world's finest works of art. All interns of The Frick Collection may access free or discounted admission to most of New York's finest museums. Summer interns will attend a wide range of staff-led enrichment sessions, such as gallery talks by curators and conservators, visits to conservation studios, introductions to the resources of the Frick Art Reference Library, and behind-the-scenes tours of museums, galleries, and auction houses around New York City. The Frick provides employees, trainees, interns, and volunteers with a discount on Museum Shop purchases and a subsidized on-site staff dining service.
