

Internship Program

are you...

PASSIONATE | CURIOUS | TEAM-ORIENTED | ENGAGED?

Plant a garden of heirloom & native plants

Play 17th-

century games with kids

Research & plan interactive

exhibits

Handle archeological artifacts

Design an educational program

Make history accessible online

Market the Nations's Premier Living History Museum

Create historically accurate clothing

Design booklets

Get inspired by America's early history and share in the day-to-day work of one of our nation's leading Living Museums.

Learn how history can change you when you intern at Plimoth Plantation.

living and learning

discovering public history

experiencing the past

Plimoth Plantation's interns enjoy an intensive experience as diverse as the Museum itself centered on immersive, hands-on fieldwork. Interns also participate in a collaborative group projects (right), enjoy field trips, and engage in unique professional development opportunities, such as these projects. Previous internships have been offered in:

MUSEUM EDUCATION

MEDIA & DESIGN

COLLECTIONS MANAGEMENT

PUBLIC HISTORY

HISTORICAL CLOTHING & TEXTILES

PUBLIC RELATIONS

MARKETING

DEVELOPMENT

AGRICULTURE & HORTICULTURE

To learn more about the Internship Program at Plimoth Plantation, visit www.plimoth.org/internships or contact Hilary Goodnow at interns@plimoth.org.

Event Displays

Artifacts Care

Horticultural Planning

