

Pakistan Forum @ NYU

Solidarity Meeting

In solidarity with the protests in Pakistan, the Pakistan Forum @NYU is organizing a virtual preliminary agenda-setting meeting to discuss possible ways in which we, as academics, can contribute towards a meaningful dialogue. We acknowledge that it is unfair to stay quiet at this critical time and we hope to be able to collectively issue a statement of solidarity with the struggle of people in Pakistan. This will be a closed meeting and we will ensure privacy for all participants. Please join us, we look forward to connecting with you.

Meeting information:
