ID	Response
7	Family pressure
117	I had a lot going on near registration and the beginning of the quarter
119	I didn't have the systems and habits built up to allow for success
131	Would rather not say
149	My mom died suddenly and traumatically and I wanted to be with family. I completed my work just didn't do the final graduation ceremony/papers.
159	I have no family to rely on for financial assistance
162	I felt like I was dragging my feet in finishing my degree. I can't pay for higher education with this much uncertainty, especially when it's not even my own money.
164	financial aid ran out
165	Job opportunity
177	Focusing on working/making money
181	See previous answer.
183	i was kicked out of my parents house and no longer receive support from my family
193	Western made me feel awkward, uncomfortable, and out of place especially pertaining to race, culture, clubs, events, and administrative outreach checking in on me
210	I had some family issues arise, and I wanted to be closer to home to feel more connected and provide help where I could.
220	wanted to address ADHD diagnosis
241	My mother retired from the military and wanted to move back to california.
246	I was only 3 credits away from graduating with my minor, and found it cheaper to transfer credits from another institution.
247	While at Western there was racism towards all students, and with the Palestine conflict a lot of racism was directed towards white and Jewish students. And although the LGBTQ+ community was very welcoming, it tended to exclude non-queer students and assume people's backgrounds or stories. I saw a lot of white students speaking for minority students instead of letting them share their experiences or just supporting them. Just all around, the campus felt very inclusive, and yet so exclusive at the same time. Students are outspoken and progressive, but they can also be assumptious and mean to one another. I think these are some reasons why the campus can feel alienating or intimidating to some.
276	Family wanted me closer
278	My grandmother passed away during spring quarter along with my childhood dog and cat too much death while doing finals

Summary for NotEnrIPrsnlCom

Which reasons regarding community and connectedness were important in your decision not to return to Western this fall?

Answer	Count	Percentage
I did not find a connection or community at Western (1)	56	19.44%
My identity was not supported at Western (2)	8	2.78%
I did not feel a sense of belonging at Western (3)	51	17.71%
I did not feel safe on campus (4)	12	4.17%
My whole self was not supported at Western (5)	16	5.56%
There was lack of diversity at Western (7)	18	6.25%
I was treated poorly by Western's faculty and staff (8)	12	4.17%
Other	3	1.04%
Not completed or Not displayed	218	75.69%

ID	Response
78	No one was outgoing or wanted to make friends, everyone that I met has transferred. Horrible food for the amount of money I wasted on the school. Like actually do better. I will never pay that amount of money for that type of shitty food again. There was nothing to do outside of school and classes, i felt like no one wanted to have go out and explore or make new friends. Everyone is introverted. Most of my professors wrre nice but some of the workload in classes was insane. Which I understand because we only take three classes but come on, I was majorly stressing about it every week. Definitely just not the place for me. But I can understand how it might be for others.
162	Seeing the same names and faces, which is natural within a department and/or major, is just very disturbing for me.
193	Your campus needs more diversity in staff, clubs, events, advising, courses, curriculum, assignments, and publicity/marketing because people like me are basically invisible and it makes us shut down and distance ourselves frankly because we don't want to advocate for what other campuses already have so we transfer and leave or drop out
